WENATCHEE VALLEY FIRE DEPARTMENT CODE OF CONDUCT AND VOLUNTEER AGREEMENT

Thank you for expressing interest in our fire department. Before completing the attached application, carefully review the Code of Conduct. The department operates as a customer service focused business. Whether a volunteer, resident or paid staff, all members are expected to conduct themselves in a manner that recognizes the department provides the public excellent emergency service. It is paramount that all members of this organization deliver services in a professional, honest, courteous, and timely manner. Failure to meet these standards will result in being asked to resign.

- Honesty & Integrity. It is understood that honesty and integrity begin with full disclosure of your information on an application. This includes full disclosure of work-related experience, past supervisors, and qualifying training. If a background check proves that false information has been provided, you will be informed not to apply or pursue membership with the department now or in the future.
- Respecting Community Members. Volunteering by its very nature means providing a service to our citizens. In most cases, services are provided on private property, and as a result, it must be ensured that personnel are honest, respectful, and professional and interact well with community members.
- Working in Teams. Most of the services provided are performed in teams. It is critical that team members work harmoniously under the direction of an officer. It is believed that team results are greater than individual achievement.
- Ability to Follow Command. Emergency incidents can be stressful and traumatic. The public expects its emergency service workers to remain calm, deliver a professional service and provide comfort to those who require it. You may not agree with directions being given or you might do the task differently, but you will be expected to follow orders in a timely and safe manner without delay, unless it threatens your life directly.
- Chain of Command. Within the organization there is a chain of command process followed. The chain of command process starts by reporting to the station Captain as the first step to resolving problems or conflicts. If the station Captain is unable to resolve the issue in a timely manner, then the next step in resolving problems or conflicts is reporting to the Battalion Chief, who will expect you to provide specific details including that the initial report was discussed with the station Captain. If the Battalion Chief cannot resolve the problem or conflict, the issue will be reported to the Deputy Chief. If the issue is reported to the Deputy Chief, the Deputy Chief or Fire Chief shall require all involved parties to provide written statements of fact, including statements by witnesses. The Fire Chief will be the final authority.
- Rumors, hearsay. These two critical issues can damage an organization's image and/or morale. A member who starts, carries, or promotes rumors or hearsay will be asked to resign if facts prove the member is responsible for initiating the rumors or hearsay.
- Morale, esprit de corps. You have obviously chosen our fire department for a reason. We hope it is because you have witnessed our pride and commitment towards our organization. We do not try to duplicate what other departments do, yet we strive to adopt industry standards while maintaining our uniqueness. If you can't support our organization and its mission, we ask that you do not apply.
- Discrimination Policy. Compliance is required with the Wenatchee Valley Fire Department Discrimination Policy as posted in the Standard Operating Guidelines.

- Probationary period. Once your application and background check have been verified and cleared, you will start a one-year probationary period. During this period, you will be evaluated on your conduct, participation in all aspects of our organization, and how well you successfully work in a team setting. If these standards are not met, you will be asked to resign or terminated.
- Volunteer intent. Wenatchee Valley Fire Department relies on volunteers who serve the community for civic, charitable, and humanitarian reasons. The department desires to clearly establish the volunteer relationship between the department and its volunteers. The department does not intend for volunteer positions to serve as primary employment for volunteers; volunteers shall not be compensated as employees.
- Reimbursement of expenses. The department recognizes that volunteering can disrupt personal, family and work life and desires to pay volunteers a nominal sum and reimburse expenses to help offset the impacts of serving as volunteer. The department has adopted a volunteer point schedule designed to clearly identify the intent to provide volunteer reimbursement payments consistent with the rules established under the Fair Labor Standards Act and the State Minimum Wage Act.
- Housing. Volunteer Aircraft Rescue Firefighters and Volunteer Resident Firefighters are generally required to reside on-site as a condition of their volunteer position. On-site housing increases response capability, reduces response times, and is of great benefit to the department.
- Volunteer relationship. The relationship between the department and its volunteers is, and remains, voluntary. That is, either the volunteer or the department has the right to end the volunteer relationship at any time and for any reason. All volunteers are members at-will and no department statements, policies, procedures, or practices (whether verbal or written) shall affect or alter the at-will status of department volunteers. Accordingly, the department reserves the right to terminate volunteers at any time without notice when, in its sole and absolute discretion, it determines that termination is in the best interest of the department without consideration of any progressive disciplinary procedures or policies.

I _____ (print name) have read, fully understand, and support the Code of Conduct and Volunteer Agreement. I further acknowledge that I may be asked to resign or be terminated if it is determined to be in the best interest of the department.
